

NDOL STREAMSIDE THAI VILLAS

A secluded streamside location, beautifully landscaped gardens, and elegant accommodations, all collude to create Ndol - "a place of inspiration". Ndol defines itself through its collection of Thai and Asian art and artifacts, showcased under the roof of the Ruen Thai Derm (traditional Thai teak house), allowing guests to experience Thailand's legendary heritage. Guests are treated to warm and friendly Thai hospitality in the comfort of Ndol's fully furnished facilities.

Ndol is only one and a half hours drive from Bangkok, and is nestled amongst lush tropical foliage, and alongside a gently flowing stream, in Muaklek district, Saraburi province. The natural splendor of this corner of Thailand attracts visitors from all over the country, and beyond. The rolling countryside is filled with a wide variety of plants and flowers, many species of birds and wildlife, refreshing streams, and soothing waterfalls.
